Project Profile

Architect: Eppstein Uhen Architects
Madison, Wis.

Contractor: Miron
Neenah, Wis.

The Project

Originally built in 1964, Fletcher Hall, which houses 500 students, needed a complete renovation. The $13.4M. 100,000 sq. ft. project included a new 16,000 sq. ft. addition, new mechanical and electrical systems, as well as an upgrade to the fire sprinkler system. In addition, all student residence rooms, bathrooms, showers and common areas were completely refurbished and brought into code compliance.

obsessed with protecting buildings[®]

How they look. How they function.
And how they protect the health and safety of the people who use them every day.

That's why we make hundreds of architectural products all under one roof and work tirelessly to make sure you and your buildings succeed.

Yeah, we are obsessed. But we wouldn't have it any other way.
